'Tis said that immigrants from the red centers of Europe are coming into this country at the rate of ten thousand a day. Well, next to heaven it is about the best place they could find.

Time, tides and railroad trains wait for no man, but bill collectors and vamps do.

Keep moving, brother. Other people are too busy getting their themselves

If we ever have another war we won't need an army. We have enough speed maniacs in this country to ride right over and exterminate any enemy—just as they do old people and little children.

NEED OF THE HOUR.

If you are inclined to be pessimistic as to the future, forget it. The country is in need of something better than pessimism at this time—and this community is a part of this country.

This is a period of readjustment and reconstruction, and no country can survive such a time without serious disagreements, dissention and confusion.

We are undergoing our share of it now, and there will be more to follow before we can hope to become our normal selves again.

We of this town are but an atom as compared to the whole country, but the welfare of the nation is as sacred to us as it is to the residents of the greatest metropolis in the land.

We should each strive to do our utmost toward stabilizing conditions and restoring commerce to a level where it can be maintained with justice and safety.

Produce—economize—save.

Those are the three paramount requirements of the day. They represent the only manner in which it is possible to continue prosperity without first undergoing a disastrous period of financial and commercial depression.
It is apparent that with a few exceptions the country as a whole understands and appreciates the situation fairly well, and is disposed to take such action as necessity requires.

Let it be said that we of this community are among those who are patriotically endeavoring to bring order out of confusion—that we have a clear perception of the duty of the hour and a determination to perform that duty.

It is not necessary that we become niggardly in our expenditures, or that we deprive ourselves of any of the necessities or reasonable luxuries of life. The situation does not call for such an extreme.

But produce—economize—save.
That means not only the return to a sane commercial standard in the immediate future, but a far greater and better country in the years to come.

It seems, however, that there is never anything new any more. As soon as it happens "everybody told you so."

YOU can't tell how shoes are made by looking at them—what sort of materials are used inside, what pains are taken in workmanship that doesn't show at first. But if they are Florsheims, you know.
Quality goes clear through or the name would not be there.
